

Walk to School Day
Wednesday October 7th, 2020

National walk to school day is one of the many wonderful traditions here at Broad Street Elementary. Due to challenges that our school is facing because of construction and the current hybrid schedule, Walk to School Day is going to look a little different.

Attached is a paw print for your student to color! We encourage all students to participate in Walk to School day by coloring a paw print and hanging it in a window of your home or other visible spot by Wednesday October 7th.

Now comes the really fun part! On Wednesday October 7th, 2020 go on a paw print hunt by going for a walk in the community and looking for paw prints! On the bottom of the paw print paper, record how many paw prints you were able to find and return it to school!

We want to see how many students went out on a Paw Print Hunt.

Thanks for your support and participation as we keep the Walk to School Day tradition alive!
